

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

An Unseen Bird.

"How did the new parrot turn out?"
"Oh he's a fine talker, but I'm awfully afraid I can't keep him."

"Why not?"

"He used to live in a medical college, and the students taught him a whole lot of professional terms. I was so mortified the other night. That rich Miss Morris was calling on us, and somebody asked her to sing. You know what a voice she has! Well, she sang a long French ballad for us, and the instant she finished the last verse that dreadful bird screeched 'Chloroform her!'—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"DIE BUT DON'T BE DRIBBED"

"Be Square and the World Is Yours," Says College Chaplain.

Chicago, May 7.—"Starve or commit suicide rather than yield to bribery after you leave college," said prof. Charles R. Henderson, chaplain of the University of Chicago, in an address to the Juniors yesterday.

"Be square with the world, wherever you may be or whatever the conditions which confront you," he added. "All great things are yours if you will not be bribed."

HOUSEHOLD CARES

Tax the Women of Tallahassee the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties with a constantly aching back.

A woman should not have a bad back, and she wouldn't if the kidneys were well.

Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys.

Here is a Tallahassee woman who endorses this claim:

Mrs. B. F. Isler, 425 Boulevard Street, Tallahassee, Fla., says: "My kidneys were weak for some time and I felt miserable in every way. I had no ambition and the least work tired me. My rest was fitful, my appetite became poor and my whole body was racked with pain. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box and found them to be just what I needed. They gave me prompt relief and for that reason I heartily recommend them to anyone afflicted with kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

"How nicely you have ironed these things, Jane," said the mistress, admiringly, to her maid. Then glancing at the glossy linen, she continued in a tone of surprise: "Oh, but I see they are all your own."

"Yes," replied Jane, "and I'd do all yours just like that if I had time."—Central Methodist Advocate.

The United States drink bill for 1909 is fixed at $1,742,300, 835. This is more than the net earnings of all the national banks in the United States, together with all the surplus of all the national banks and the entire capital stock of every national bank of every city and town in the Union.

Why He Wept.

He had worn all his father's cast-off clothing, from coats to collars, without a murmur; but now they found him shedding copious floods of tears.

"What the matter dear?" inquired his loving mother. "Have you hurt yourself?"

"No, no," he wailed. "But father's had his beard shaved off and now, I suppose, I've got to wear those old red whiskers."

Egotism.

"He has an exaggerated idea of his own importance."

"How does his complaint manifest itself?"

"Well, for instance he thinks every time stocks take a tumble that it is merely because he bought about a dozen shares of something that didn't cost more than $2 or $6 a share."

Never hesitate about giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to children. It contains no opium or other narcotics and can be given with implicit confidence. As a quick cure for coughs and colds to which children are susceptible, it is unsurpassed. Sold by all dealers.

An Impossibility.

"Farmers can't get farm hands no more." "Go to the crowded cities. Take some moving pictures of life on a farm and exhibit them."

"How can we take moving pictures of life on the farm? We can't ketch the hired man in motion."

Jennie's Excuse.

A Wichita child who had been absent from school brought back the following excuse when she returned:

"Dear Teacher: Please excuse Jennie. She was sick and had to stay at home to do the washing and ironing."—Wichita Kan. Beacon.

Itching piles provoke profanity, but profanity won't cure them. Doan's Ointment cures itching, bleeding or protruding piles after years of suffering. At any drug store.

The Toledo and Ohio Central railroad recently dismissed from its service, nine engineers, firemen and conductors who drank intoxicants.

Caller—Snip & Co. have employed me to collect the bill you owe them.

Owens—You are to be congratulated sir, in securing a permanent position.

"What kind of part have I in the new piece? Is there any chance of my pleasing the audience?"

"Every chance. You die in the first act."—Judge.

A touch of rheumatism, or a twinge of neuralgia, whatever the trouble is, Chamberlain's Liniment drives away the pain at once and cures the complaint quickly. First application gives relief. Sold by all dealers.

A significant fact that the sale of intoxicants is dangerous is seen in the positive refusal to sell any liquor privileges at the ringside of the coming Jeffries-Johnson prize fight.

A Michigan farmers club, known as the North Owerro Farmers club, has refused to patronize or support any newspaper favoring the sale of intoxicants.

The saloon keepers of Spokane, Wash., have been notified that selling liquor to habitual drunkards will be punishable by jail sentences hereafter instead of fines.

If you haven't the time to exercise regularly, Doan's Regulents will prevent constipation. They induce a mild, easy, healthful action of the bowels without griping. Ask your druggist for them.

"One million persons in the United States are confirmed inebriates," is the declaration of Dr. Delancy Carter, of New York.

"Dry Decatur, Ill., built more houses during 1909 than both the 'wet' cities of Springfield and Bloomington combine."

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will clear the sour stomach, sweeten the breath and create a healthy appetite. They promote the flow of gastric juice, thereby inducing good digestion. Sold by all dealers.

Thomas A. Edison says: "The whiskey business is like throwing sand in the bearings of a steam engine."

Sixty-five out of every 100 jail commitments in Great Britain are due to intoxicants.

Stops earache in two minutes; toothache or pain or burn or scald in five minutes; hoarseness, one hour; muscle-ache, two hours; sore throat, twelve hours.—Dr. Thomas Electric Oil, monarch over pain. 11-4t.

Diplomacy.

"I can't get along with that cook."

"But have you tried diplomacy, my dear?"

"I have. Today I handed the minx her passports."—Washington Herald.

What has the saloon ever done for the benefit of the workingman?

Lincoln, the capital of Nebraska after a year's experience without saloons, has again voted dry by nearly a thousand majority.

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Weeping Animals.

Travelers through the Syrian desert have seen horses weep from thirst. A mule has been seen to cry from the pain of an injured foot, and camels, it is said, shed tears in streams. A cow sold by its mistress, who had tended it from calfhood, wept pitifully. A young soko ape used to cry with vexation if Livingstone didn't nurse it in his arms when it asked him to. Wounded apes have died crying, and apes have wept over their young ones slain by hunters. A chimpanzee trained to carry water jugs broke one and cried, which proved sorrow, though it wouldn't mend the jug. Rats, discovering their young drowned, have been moved to tears of grief. A giraffe which a huntsman's rifle had injured began to cry when approached. Sea lions often weep over the loss of their young. Gordon Cumming observed tears trickling down the face of a dying elephant. And even an orang-utang when deprived of its mango was so vexed that it took to weeping. There is little doubt, therefore, that animals do cry from grief or weep from pain or annoyance.—Harper's Weekly.

The Laborer's Thanks.

A tram car was going down a busy street one day and was already comfortably full when it was hailed by a laboring man much the worse for liquor, who presently staggered along the car between two rows of well dressed people regardless of polished shoes and tender feet.

Murmurs and complaints arose on all sides, and demands were heard that the offender should be ejected at once.

But amid the storm of abuse one friendly voice was raised as a benevolent clergyman rose from his seat, saying:

"No, no! Let the man sit down and be quiet."

The discomfort of the party turned to mirth when the drunken one seized his benefactor by the hand, exclaiming:

"Thank ye, sir—thank ye. I see you know what it is to be tight!"—London Answers.

Served Him Well.

During the early days of the career of William Allen White, when he was charged with the conduct of a country paper in Iowa, he one day received a call from an indignant contributor, who bitterly complained that matter of his, long before submitted, had not been published.

"Softly, my friend," said White in his most soothing tone. "Really I must offer my best thanks to you for those features. They have served me well. From time to time when I get to thinking that this sheet is a pretty poor one to inflict upon a long suffering public I look up your stuff and read it carefully, a process which enables me to perceive how much worse my paper might be, whereupon I become real cheerful. Please don't take them from me."—Cleveland Leader.

That Lame Back Means Kidney Disease

And to Relieve the Lame and Aching Back, You Must First Relieve the Kidneys

There is no question about that at all—for the lame and aching back is caused by a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder. It is only common sense, any way—that you must cure a condition by removing the cause of the condition. And lame and aching back are not by any means the only symptoms of derangement of the kidneys and bladder. There are a multitude of well-known and unmistakable indications of a more or less dangerous condition. Some of these are, for instance: Extreme and unnatural lassitude and weariness, nervous irritability, heart irregularity, "nerves on edge," sleeplessness and inability to secure rest, scalding sensation and sediment in the urine, inflammation of the bladder and passages, etc.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are an exceptionally meritorious remedy for any and all affections or diseased conditions of these organs. These Pills operate directly and promptly—and their beneficial results are at once felt.

They regulate, purify, and effectually heal and restore the kidneys, bladder and liver, to perfect and healthy condition—even in some of the most advanced cases.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write them, and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail postpaid.

tell him to select any one figure from the list, multiply it by 9 and with the answer to this sum multiply the whole list—thus, assuming that he selects either the figure 4 or 6:

Select 4x9=36.	Select 6x9=54.
12345678	12345678
36	54
7674074	4982716
3703703	6172836
14444444	66666666

You see, the answer of the sum is composed of figures similar to the one selected.

Men in Petticoats.

It will probably be a matter of surprise to the general reader to learn that the petticoat was first worn exclusively by men. In the reign of King Henry VII, the dress of the English was so fantastic and absurd that it was difficult to distinguish one sex from the other. In the inventory of Henry V, appears a "petticoat of red damask, with open sleeves." There is no mention of a woman's petticoat before the Tudor period.

Cruel Blow.

"Are you aware of the fact?" remarked Miss Cutting, "that I am a mind reader?"

"Nevah suspected it, weally," answered young Softleigh. "Would you—aw—object to weeding my mind, doncher know?"

"Certainly not," she replied. "Bring it with you the next time you call."

Paced Too Rapidly.

"Walter, ask the orchestra to play something different."

"Any particular selection, sir?"
"Something slower. I can't chew my food properly in waltz time."—Kansas City Journal.

Patroness of Music.

The origin of music is lost in antiquity. Among civilized people it is probably to be traced to the ancient Egyptian priests, who employed this art in their religious rites and ceremonies. From the Egyptians the Greeks and the Romans derived their knowledge of music. The ancient Hebrews probably took with them into Palestine some of the songs they had learned in Egypt. The hymns used in the temple formed the basis of the melodies of the early Christian church, and from these hymns was formulated the first authoritative musical system. St. Cecilia is termed the patroness of music.—Exchange.

The Spit Snake.

There is a snake belonging to the small family crotalids, inhabiting Africa, that is said to have the power of ejecting its venom to a short distance.

This snake is called by the Dutch Boers "spuw slang," or spit snake. When this snake erects its teeth the pressure of the maxillary bone on the gland causes the venom to flow in drops, and it may be quite possible that by discharging air from its mouth the poison may be blown some distance.

The Gypsies.

The origin of the people known as gypsies remains largely a mystery. Egypt, India, Persia and Arabia have in turn been pointed out as their original country, but there is little definite knowledge on the subject. The weight of evidence is in favor of their having originated in India. They first appeared in Europe about 1400 and from the Danube region spread all over the continent, appearing in England about 1520.

Before we begin, the Open Hearth Steel Pipe which goes into SCHOFIELD boilers must stand the very severest of tests—for instance it must be capable of being bent flat upon itself when cold, when red hot and after being heated red hot and quenched in water—and it must stand all this vigorous treatment without showing any signs whatever of fracture. The test is made through under test must be 6,000 pounds per square inch of section. The production of the boiler—thickness of steel and heads—the number, size, length and arrangement of the tubes—the riveting of the seams—are the result of long experience and the experience of the very best authorities. ALL BOILERS ARE TESTED before shipment to a pressure of 150 lbs. in cases of doubt which they are to work under, when so ordered, we will have them inspected and insured by you by a reliable insurance company. We carry in stock, ready for immediate shipment, boilers from 10 to 100 H. P. with working pressures of 150, 125 to 125 pounds per inch. Also Valve Gears from 10 to 100 H. P. We have Trade Tools, Valves and Fittings, etc. Write for catalogue of complete power plant.
